

Blurb

The 26th Moravian Music Festival, Part I (all online), is coming up in 2 weeks! Registrants will have access to many videos and resources for musicians, directors, and listeners, with topics ranging from copyright to choir directing, instrument repair to Moravian music history. Whether or not you are registered, please join in with Moravians around the world to “attend” online concerts each night of Festival week, beginning Sunday, July 18 through Friday, July 23. Concert preludes and devotions will begin at 7:00. The 26th Moravian Music Festival, Part II (in person), will take place July 26-30, 2022, in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Please visit www.MoravianMusicFestival.org for concerts schedule, registration information, and pictures from past Festivals!